

Rules for Posting in Foxwood HOA Facebook Group

3/12/21

#1: Membership in the Foxwood HOA group is restricted to Foxwood HOA owners, and renters with permission from the property owner. This will be managed by the Group Admins.

#2: Content posting should be aligned to the purpose of this Facebook group, which is for information sharing, networking, community building, safety and emergency preparedness.

#3: Remember that there are members in this group with a variety of political, theological, cultural and philosophical views. Be respectful of views different from your own and of communications and opinions in this group. Group Admins. will delete postings, images or comments that devalue or denigrate another person or culture.

#4: Do not advertise or market your business or attempt to sell products in this group. Do not solicit for customers or clients for your business.

#5: Think before you post! Avoid posting gossip statements. Respect the privacy of others.

#6: The Group Admins are allowed to remove members who don't comply with these rules. A Group member violating any of these rules will be given a first warning. Three warnings and the member will be removed from the group.

